

Course Description and Expectations

Chapter One: Research and Methodology:

1. Research defined and described
2. Some classifications of research
3. Define and discuss methodology
4. Description of the research process
5. Discuss creativity and its role in the research process

Chapter Two: How to Give a Good Presentation

1. Types of presentations
2. Pointers for a good talk

Chapter Three: Component of Projects

1. Components
2. Project Talk outlines
3. How to Cite – EndNote

Chapter Four: Communication and Your Career

1. How to go from here to your Dream career
2. Questions you should answer yourself
3. When you think about your future career, what comes to mind?
4. Key points

Indicative Assessment:

Students should conduct research projects (mostly reviews) and report its outcomes in both written and verbal forms consistent with the standards of their chosen discipline.

Assessment Item Details	Weighting percentage
Detailed Report	30%
Oral Presentation (based on time consumed, skills, slides flow and contents, & take home messages)	20%
Abstract, Interactive Discussion and Attendance	10%
Final exam	40%

Reference:

Kothari, C. R. (2004). Research methodology: Methods and techniques. New Age International.

Rehfuss, M. C. (2009). The future career autobiography: A narrative measure of career intervention effectiveness. The Career Development Quarterly, 58(1), 82-90.

Collin, A., & Young, R. A. (Eds.). (2000). The future of career. Cambridge University Press.